Putting the "You" in Guardianship

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Dr. Mary L. Milano is the Executive Director of the Illinois Guardianship and Advocacy Commission, the largest agency of its kind in the country. The Commission combines public guardianship of last resort with mandates including legal representation of individuals under the Mental Health and Disabilities Code, investigation and resolution of complaints of human rights abuses by service providers, legislative and policy work in disability rights.

As a practicing attorney, a professor of moral theology, and a priest of the Episcopal Diocese of Chicago, Dr. Milano's academic and professional background integrates law, theology and social justice. Dr. Milano is active in speaking, writing, and teaching in continuing legal education. She has lectured for the American Bar Association, Chicago Bar Association and Illinois State Bar. Dr. Milano has received the Illinois Bar Foundation Changemakers Award and the ISBA Board of Governors Award as well as the NIU College of Law Distinguished Public Service Award. She has been appointed to the Illinois Supreme Court Commission on Elder Law.
